Ocean Grove to Celebrate

College Day During Week

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

OCEAN GROVE, July 22.—College
Day, an event in which students from prep schools, seminaries and colleges will take part, is the chief feature of the calendar for next week. Twenty-two already have registered, and when Judge Harold B. Wells reads the roll the yells of those colleges or appropriate stunis will be given in answer. This is an annual celebration, and one that arouses much enthusiasm among college students and graduates.

Anna Case, as well as the famous Mme. Schumann-Heink, will be heard at the Ocean Grove Auditorium. August 19 is the date set for the concert of Mme. Schumann-Heink, Before beginning work upon an American opera, Mr. Sousa will lead his band in a concert August 5.

Jubilee singers gave an entertainment Monday night. The Criterion Quartet, of New York, which comes here annually, gave a concert to a large crowd in the Auditorium to-night.

Among those who have registered for tennis tournaments, which begin August 1, finals to be played on Labor Day, sre Assistant Visit Control of New York, which comes here annually, gave a concert to a large crowd in the Auditorium to-night.
